“(D) Is 21 years of age or older and receiving a benefit under Medicaid or the DC Healthcare Alliance.

“(3)(A) By September 13, 2021, the Mayor shall provide notice to each individual certified as qualified for utility disconnection relief pursuant to paragraph (2) of this subsection.

“(B) By September 27, 2021, and every 4 weeks thereafter until January 1, 2022, the Mayor shall provide companies and the Office of the People’s Counsel (“OPC”) with a list of each individual certified as qualified for utility disconnection relief, including the individual’s home address. Such list shall be property of the District and shall only be used to determine that an individual on the list is qualified for relief from utility disconnection and to communicate that to affected households and companies as needed.

“(4) By August 9, 2021, the Mayor shall, pursuant to Title I of the District of Columbia Administrative Procedure Act, approved October 21, 1968 (82 Stat. 1204; D.C. Official Code § 2-501 et seq.), promulgate emergency rules to implement this subsection, including guidance on the District’s and the companies’ responsibilities under this subsection.

“(k)(1) A company shall provide notice, as described in paragraph (4) of this subsection, to a customer regarding the customer’s account at least 60 days in advance of disconnecting, suspending, or degrading service, inclusive of disconnection procedures in section 311 of Title 15 of the District of Columbia Municipal Regulations (15 DCMR § 311).

“(2)(A) On or before October 12, 2021, a company shall provide notice as described in paragraph (4) of this subsection to customers with a bill past due. Notice under this subparagraph shall be mailed to the customer in hard copy and the phrase “PAST DUE” shall be clearly printed on the bill or envelope.

“(B) Notice under this paragraph shall take the form of a flyer included in monthly customer bills or prominent language on the bill and be included in both hard-copy and electronic-form bills.

“(3) A past due or disconnection notice sent to a customer by a company shall include notice as described in paragraph (4) of this subsection.

“(4) Notice under this paragraph shall be issued in at least English and Spanish. The notice shall include information on:

“(A) The availability of payment assistance programs;

“(B) Information on eligibility for payment assistance programs and the process to apply to each payment assistance program;

“(C) The right of customers to remain eligible for relief from disconnection, suspension, or degradation of service; provided, that they are eligible for relief under subsection (j)(1)(E) of this section; and

“(D) A customer’s right to contact OPC for assistance with negotiating a payment plan on the customer’s behalf.

“(5) The Public Service Commission and Board of Directors of the District of Columbia Water and Sewer Authority (“DC Water Board of Directors”) may issue regulations regarding customer engagement criteria and customer notice requirements consistent with this subsection.

“(l)(1) For a period of 90 days beginning on October 12, 2021, a company shall restore service to a customer when the customer makes a payment to the company of at least $10; provided, that the customer enters into a payment plan pursuant to section 308 of the Coronavirus Support Emergency Amendment Act of 2021, effective March 17, 2021 (D.C. Act 24-30; 68 DCR 3101), section 308 of the Coronavirus Support Congressional Review Emergency Amendment Act of 2021, effective June 7, 2021 (D.C. Act 24-96; 68 DCR 6025), or section 308 of the Coronavirus Support Temporary Amendment Act of 2021, effective June 24, 2021 (D.C. Law 24-9; 68 DCR 4824), or makes a showing that the utility was disconnected improperly pursuant to this act. Amounts paid by a customer pursuant to this paragraph shall be applied in full to reduce the amounts owed by the customer to the company.

“(2)(A) When a customer whose service has been disconnected, suspended, or degraded for nonpayment is certified by the Mayor or documented by the customer to be eligible for utility disconnection relief under subsection (j)(1)(E) of this section, a company shall reconnect the customer without charge.

“(B) A company shall reconnect a customer under subparagraph (A) of this paragraph within 24 hours of receiving notice that the customer is qualified for utility disconnection relief under subsection (j)(1)(E) of this section.

“(m)(1) Beginning on November 1, 2021, and ending on February 1, 2022, each utility company that is regulated by the Public Service Commission of the District of Columbia shall report monthly to the Public Service Commission of the District of Columbia and to OPC the number of customers, by zip code, that have entered into payment plans, that have had service suspended or disconnected for non-payment, or that are in arrears.

“(2) Beginning on November 1, 2021, and ending on February 1, 2022, the District of Columbia Water and Sewer Authority (“DC Water”) shall report monthly to the DC Water Board of Directors and to OPC the number of customers, by zip code and customer class, that have entered payment plans, that have had service suspended or disconnected for non-payment, or that are in arrears.

“(n) A telecommunications service provider, as that term is defined by the Telecommunications Competition Act of 1996, effective September 9, 1996 (D.C. Law 11-154; D.C. Official Code § 34-2002.01 et. seq.), shall not disconnect, suspend, or degrade basic telecommunications service to a customer that is participating in the federal Lifeline program for non-payment of a bill, any fees for service or equipment, or other charges, or for noncompliance with a deferred payment agreement.

“(o) Nothing in this act shall be read to supersede the existing moratorium on disconnections under section 106a of the Retail Electric Competition and Consumer Protection Act of 1999, effective March 9, 2016 (D.C. Law 21-82; D.C. Official Code § 34-1506.01).

Sec. 4. STAY DC Improvements.

(a)(1) No later than August 9, 2021, the Stronger Together by Assisting You ("STAY DC") Program application portal shall allow housing providers to submit an application for emergency rental assistance on behalf of tenants with an electronic signature from the tenant for funding allocated to the District through section 501 of Division N of the Consolidated Appropriations Act of 2021, approved December 27, 2020 (134 Stat. 2069; 15 U.S.C. § 9058a).

(2) Applications submitted by housing providers under paragraph (1) shall meet all the requirements of section 501(f)(2) of Division N of the Consolidated Appropriations Act, 2021, approved December 27, 2020 (134 Stat. 2069; 15 U.S.C. § 9058a(f)(2)), and applicable guidance issued by the United States Department of Treasury.

(b) No later than August 9, 2021, the Mayor shall issue guidance outlining the circumstances in which STAY DC will cover arrearages for internet services provided to the rental unit and security deposits, consistent with U.S. Department of Treasury guidance. This guidance shall be posted on the STAY DC website.

(c) Should additional time be necessary to implement the changes in this section, the Mayor shall notify the Council. For each specific improvement required by this section, the notice to Council shall include the reason more time is needed, and an estimate of the additional time needed.

(d) No later than August 9, 2021, the Mayor shall provide information related to the STAY DC program, including eligibility, instructions for application, benefits of enrolling, and any programmatic deadlines, via e-mail or another form of communication, to all individuals who have received benefits during the emergencies declared in the Declaration of Public Emergency (Mayor's Order 2020-045) together with the Declaration of Public Health Emergency (Mayor's Order 2020-046), declared on March 11, 2020, including any extension of those declared emergencies, from the following programs:

- (1) Unemployment insurance;
- (2) Emergency rental assistance;
- (3) Medicaid;
- (4) Low Income Home Energy Assistance Program;
- (5) Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program;
- (6) Temporary Assistance for Needy Families Program; and
- (7) DC Healthcare Alliance.

Sec. 5. Phasing of the eviction moratorium and additional protections.

(a) Title 16 of the District of Columbia Official Code is amended as follows:

(1) Section 16-1501 is amended to read as follows:

"§ 16-1501. Definition; summons.

"(a) When a person detains possession of real property without right, or after his right to possession has ceased, the Superior Court of the District of Columbia, on complaint under oath verified by the person aggrieved by the detention, or by his agent or attorney having knowledge of the facts, may issue a summons in English and Spanish to the party complained of to appear and show cause why judgment should not be given against him for the restitution of possession.

“(b) The person aggrieved shall not file a complaint seeking restitution of possession pursuant to this section for nonpayment of rent in an amount less than $600. Nothing in this subsection shall prevent the person aggrieved from filing a complaint to recover the amount owed.

“(c)(1) Prior to January 1, 2022, the person aggrieved shall not file a complaint seeking relief pursuant to this section, except when:

“(A) The complaint alleges that the tenant’s continuing presence at the housing accommodation where the tenant resides presents a current and substantial threat to the health and safety of tenants, on-site agents, or employees of the owners of the housing accommodation, or household members or guests of other tenants, or residents of immediately adjacent properties, because the tenant has violated an obligation of tenancy by engaging in an unlawful possession of a firearm, threats or acts of violence, or assault;

“(B) The complaint alleges that the tenant has willfully or wantonly caused significant damage to the unit, building, premises, or property of the housing provider; or

“(C) The complaint alleges non-payment of rent, the complaint is filed on or after October 12, 2021, and the person aggrieved provides documentation at the time of filing demonstrating that:

“(i) He or she has applied for emergency rental assistance through the STAY DC program on behalf of the tenant, or initiated the application on behalf of the tenant by completing all landlord portions of the application, the tenant has been notified in writing of the application, and the housing provider is eligible to seek possession pursuant to § 42-3505.01(b-1)(1); and “(ii) The tenant has been served with a written notice which meets the requirements of § 42-3505.01(b-1)(2) and all other requirements under District law.

“(2) It shall be a dispositive affirmative defense requiring dismissal of a complaint for non-payment of rent if a tenant can demonstrate with substantial evidence provided through testimony that:

“(A) The housing provider did not pursue rental assistance as required timely or in good faith;

“(B) The tenant did not receive notice of the rental assistance application;

“(C) The housing provider did not provide a notice that meets the requirements of 42-3505.01(b-1)(2), and all other requirements under District of Columbia law;

“(D) The tenant or their authorized representative submitted an application for emergency rental assistance prior to or during the 60 days after receiving a past due rent notice, and that application is still pending, approved and awaiting payment, or under appeal;

“(E) The housing provider has not met the requirements of § 42-3505.01(b-1)(1); or

“(F) For complaints that involve rent arrears accrued since March 11, 2020, the landlord did not offer or negotiate a payment plan in good faith pursuant to § 42-3281 at any time since March 11, 2020.

“(3) For complaints filed pursuant to (c)(1)(B) of this subsection, it shall be a dispositive affirmative defense requiring dismissal of a complaint if a tenant can demonstrate with substantial evidence that the housing provider willfully or negligently contributed to the significant damage of the unit, premises, building, or property that are the subject of the complaint.

“(4) For purposes of this subsection, the term:

“(A) “Act of violence” shall have the same meaning as “crime of violence” as provided in § 23-1331(4).

“(B) “Assault” shall be construed according to § 22-404.

“(C) “Significant damage” includes large holes in the walls of the unit that cannot be repaired with plaster and paint, destruction of major building systems such as electric or plumbing, destruction of appliances such as ovens, refrigerators or dish washing machines in the unit, or damage to large areas of flooring such that the housing provider will have to replace the damaged flooring.

“(D) “Threat” shall be construed according to § 22-407.

“(E) “Unlawful possession of a firearm” shall be construed according to § 22-4503.

“(5) Nothing in this section shall be construed to create an obligation on the part of any person to pursue an eviction action under this subsection.

“(6) No tenant shall be evicted from a rental unit based on a complaint filed under this subsection unless the court determines by a preponderance of the evidence that the alleged violation of an obligation of tenancy meets all of the requirements of this subsection.

“(7) At the initial hearing for any complaint for non-payment of rent, if the complaint does not allege sufficient facts or the person aggrieved has not produced sufficient documentation to meet all pre-filing requirements under District law, the Court shall dismiss the complaint.

“(d)(1) The person aggrieved shall not file a complaint seeking restitution of possession pursuant to this section without a valid registration or claim or exemption issued pursuant to § 42-3502.05, and a current license for rental housing issued pursuant to § 47-2828(c)(1) presented at the time of filing.

“(2) The Court may waive the requirements in this subsection if the person aggrieved can demonstrate that the housing provider for the housing accommodation was unable to obtain or renew a current rental housing license due to extenuating circumstances.

“(e) The person aggrieved shall not file a complaint pursuant seeking relief to this section based on consistent late payment of rent by a tenant occurring between the dates of March 11, 2020, and 60 days after the expiration of the public health emergency declared in response to the novel 2019 coronavirus (SARS CoV-2).

“(f) Complaints seeking relief pursuant to this section that are not permitted to be filed pursuant to subsection (c) of this section shall not be filed until January 1, 2022, at the earliest.”.

(2) Section 16-1502 is amended to read as follows:

“§ 16-1502. Service of summons.

“(a) The summons provided for by § 16-1501 shall be served 30 days, exclusive of Sundays, legal holidays, and days occurring during a period of time for which the Mayor has declared a public health emergency pursuant to § 7-2304.01, before the day fixed for the initial hearing of the action; except, that a summons may be served during a period of time for which the Mayor has declared a public health emergency pursuant to § 7-2304.01, and for 60 days thereafter, if the summons relates to a complaint that is filed pursuant to the exceptions listed in § 16-1501(c)(1). If the defendant has left the District of Columbia, or cannot be found, the summons may be served by delivering a copy thereof to the tenant, or by leaving a copy with some person above the age of sixteen years residing on or in possession of the premises sought to be recovered, and if no one is in actual possession of the premises, or residing thereon, by posting a copy of the summons on the premises where it may be conveniently read. If the summons is posted on the premises, a copy of the summons shall be mailed first class U.S. mail, postage prepaid, to the premises sought to be recovered, in the name of the person known to be in possession of the premises, or if unknown, in the name of the person occupying the premises, within 3 calendar days of the date of posting.

“(b) If a summons is served by posting a copy on the premises, a photograph of the posted summons must be submitted to the court. The photograph must have a readable timestamp that indicates the date and time of when the summons was posted.”.

(b) The Rental Housing Act of 1985, effective July 17, 1985 (D.C. Law 6-10; D.C. Official Code § 42-3501.01 et seq.), is amended as follows:

(1) Section 501 (D.C. Official Code § 42-3505.01) is amended as follows:

(A) Subsection (a) is amended as follows:

(i) The existing text is designated as paragraph (1).

(ii) Paragraph (1) is amended by striking the phrase “written notice to vacate” and inserting the phrase “written notice” in its place.

(iii) A new paragraph (2) is added to read as follows:

“(2) If a notice is served by posting a copy on the premises, a photograph of the posted notice must be submitted to the court. The photograph must have a readable timestamp that indicates the date and time of when the summons was posted.”.

(iii) A new paragraph (3) is added to read as follows:

“(3) If the landlord knows the tenant speaks a primary language other than English or Spanish that is covered under section 4 of the Language Access Act of 2004, effective June 19, 2004 (D.C. Law 15-167; D.C. Official Code § 2-1933), the landlord must provide the notice in that language.

(B) Subsection (a-1) is amended as follows

(i) Paragraph (1) is amended by striking the word “claim” and inserting the phrase “claim, unless the claim pertains to subsection (b-1) of this section” in its place.

(ii) Paragraph (2)(C) is amended by striking the phrase “, including evidence of the time and date of service” and inserting the phrase “with a readable timestamp that indicates the date and time of when the summons was posted” in its place.

(C) Subsection (b) is amended to read as follows:

“(b) A housing provider may recover possession of a rental unit when the tenant is violating an obligation of tenancy, other than nonpayment of rent, and fails to correct the violation within 30 days after receiving notice from the housing provider.”.

(D) A new subsection (b-1) is added to read as follows:

“(b-1)(1) On or after October 12, 2021, a housing provider may recover possession of a rental unit for nonpayment of rent when the past due rent is equal to more than $600 and any of the following applies:

“(A) The tenant fails to submit an emergency rental assistance application within 60 days of receiving a notice of past due rent;

“(B) The tenant’s application for emergency rental assistance was denied, or the application was approved with a balance of equal to or greater than $600 remaining unpaid, and the tenant and housing provider have not established a rent payment plan pursuant to section 402 of the Coronavirus Support Temporary Amendment Act, effective June 24, 2021 (D.C. Law 24-9; D.C. Official Code § 42-3192.01), within 14 days of the denial; or

“(C) A tenant with a rent payment plan is at least $600 or 2 months behind on the terms of the payment plan, whichever is greater.

“(2) Prior to filing a complaint with the Superior Court for nonpayment of rent, a housing provider shall send to the tenant a notice of past due rent containing the following or substantively similar language:

“This is a notice of past due rent. The total amount of rent owed is [list specific amount due]. A ledger showing the dates of rent charges and payments for the period of delinquency is attached. You have the right to remain in the rental unit if the total balance of unpaid rent is paid in full or if you are current on a rent payment plan.

“[Name of housing provider] has initiated an application to STAY DC for emergency rental assistance on your behalf for any rent due after April 1, 2020. Only you or your authorized representative can complete the tenant portion of the application. If the ledger shows amounts due prior to April 2020, you should also seek assistance from other District emergency rental assistance programs, such as the Emergency Rental Assistance Program ("ERAP").

"You have 60 days, or until [insert specific date], to submit your portion of any application(s) for emergency rental assistance. To apply for STAY DC, go to stay.dc.gov or call 833-4STAYDC (833-478-2932). The STAY DC call center can also connect you to application help and refer you to ERAP and other District emergency rental-assistance programs.

"You may qualify for assistance if your household's annual income is equal to or less than the amounts shown below:

People in Household	Maximum Income	People in Household	Maximum Income
1	$57,650	5	$88,900
2	$65,850	6	$95,500
3	$74,100	7	$102,100
4	$82,300	8	$108,650

"[Name of housing provider] has the right to file a case in court seeking your eviction, without further notice, if any of the following occur:

"(A) You fail to submit an emergency rental assistance application within 60 days;

"(B) You are denied emergency rental assistance for all or part of the past due amount and you have not established a rent payment plan with us within 14 days of the denial; or

"(C) You miss payments under a rent payment plan totaling at least $600 or two months of rent, whichever is greater.

"If [name of housing provider] files in court, your next notice will be a summons to appear in court. You have the right to defend yourself in court. Only a court can order your eviction. For further help or to seek free legal services, contact the Office of the Tenant Advocate at 202-719-6560 or the Landlord Tenant Legal Assistance Network at 202-780-2575."

(E) Subsection (k) is amended as follows:

(i) Paragraph (1) is amended by striking the phrase "; or" and inserting a semicolon in its place.

(ii) Paragraph (2) is amended by striking the period and inserting the phrase "; or" in its place.

(iii) A new paragraph (3) is added to read as follows:

"(3) During a period of time for which the Mayor has declared a public health emergency pursuant to section 5a of the District of Columbia Public Emergency Act of 1980, effective March 5, 1981 (D.C. Law 3-149; D.C. Official Code § 7-2304.01), except for evictions arising from those complaints filed pursuant to the exceptions in D.C. Official Code § 16-1501(c)(1); provided, that:

"(A) A family facing eviction pursuant to D.C. Official Code § 16-1501(c)(1)(A) shall be offered assistance and resources that support the coordination or continuation of youth education, social services, and other resources before the eviction is carried out; and “(B) A person with behavioral, emotional, or mental health issues facing eviction pursuant to D.C. Official Code § 16-1501(c)(1)(A) shall be offered behavioral health or housing counseling services and shall be offered alternative housing arrangements before the eviction is carried out.

(F) Subsection (q) is amended to read as follows:

“(q)(1) Beginning on October 14, 2020, for the period of time during which there exists a public health emergency declared pursuant to section 5a of the District of Columbia Public Emergency Act of 1980, effective March 5, 1981 (D.C. Law 3-149; D.C. Official Code § 7-2304.01), and not earlier than September 26, 2021, no housing provider may:

“(A) Issue to a tenant a notice pursuant to this section, except notices of past due rent pursuant to subsection (b-1)(2) of this section; or

“(B) Engage in any action that is intended to force tenants to leave their housing or otherwise give up their rights under the law, including the actions described under section 502(a).

“(2) A person who violates paragraph (1) of this subsection shall be subject to penalties under section 901.”

(G) A new subsection (q-1) is added to read as follows:

“(q-1)(1) Subsection (q) shall not apply to notice for complaints filed pursuant to the exceptions in D.C. Official Code § 16-1501(c)(1).

“(2)(A) A notice issued to a tenant pursuant to this subsection must do the following:

“(i) State prominently and at the beginning of any such notice that the tenant does not have to vacate the rental unit until and unless a court orders the tenant to do so;

“(ii) For cases involving alleged violations of obligations of tenancy, state prominently and at the beginning of any such notice that the tenant has the right to correct or cease the alleged violation of tenancy and remain in the rental unit;

“(iii) For cases involving non-payment of rent, meet the requirements of subsection (b-1)(2) of this section in addition to the requirements of this subsection and other applicable District laws;

“(iv) State prominently and at the beginning of any such notice that the tenant has the right to dispute the landlord’s allegations through the court process and remain in the rental unit until the court reaches a decision on the matter;

“(v) Include the phone numbers of the Office of the Tenant Advocate and the Landlord Tenant Legal Assistance Network and state prominently and at the beginning of any such notice that both resources may provide or may refer the tenant to free legal services for tenants facing eviction; and “(vi) If the landlord knows the tenant speaks a primary language other than English or Spanish that is covered section 4 of the Language Access Act of 2004, effective June 19, 2004 (D.C. Law 15-167; D.C. Official Code § 2-1933), be translated into that language.

(H) A new subsection (s) is added to read as follows:

“(s) Unless a purchaser of real property has obtained the deed to the property, the purchaser shall not evict a tenant.”.

(2) Section 501a(b) (D.C. Official Code § 42-3505.01a(b)) is amended as follows:

(A) The lead-in language of paragraph (1) is amended by striking the phrase “date of eviction not fewer than 21 days before the date of eviction” and inserting the phrase “date of eviction” in its place.

(B) A new paragraph (1-A) is added to read as follows:

“(1-A) For a rescheduled eviction authorized prior to March 11, 2020, a housing provider shall deliver to the tenant the notice required in paragraph (1) of this subsection not fewer than 30 days prior to the new date.”

(C) A new paragraph (1-B) is added to read as follows:

“(1-B) For evictions other than those covered in paragraph (1-A) of this subsection, a housing provider shall deliver to the tenant the notice required in paragraph (1) of this subsection not fewer than 21 days prior to the new date.”.

Sec. 6. Repealers.

(a) Section 2 of the Coronavirus Public Health Extension Emergency Amendment Act of 2021, effective May 19, 2021 (D.C. Act 24-79; 68 DCR 5600), is repealed.

(b) Section 2 of the Coronavirus Public Health Extension Temporary Amendment Act of 2021, enacted on June 17, 2021 (D.C. Act 24-99; 68 DCR 6446), is repealed.

Sec. 7. Applicability.

(a) Amendatory section 307(j)(2) and (3) of the Coronavirus Support Temporary Amendment Act of 2021, effective June 24, 2021 (D.C. Law 24-9; 68 DCR 4824), in section 3(k) shall apply upon the date of inclusion of its fiscal effect in an approved budget and financial plan.

(b) The Chief Financial Officer shall certify the date of the inclusion of the fiscal effect in an approved budget and financial plan and provide notice to the Budget Director of the Council of the certification.

(c)(1) The Budget Director shall cause the notice of the certification to be published in the District of Columbia Register.

(2) The date of publication of the notice of the certification shall not affect the applicability of this act.

Sec. 8. Fiscal impact statement.

The Council adopts the fiscal impact statement of the Budget Director as the fiscal impact statement required by section 4a of the General Legislative Procedures Act of 1975, approved October 16, 2006 (120 Stat. 2038; D.C. Official Code § 1-301.47a).

Sec. 9. Effective date.

This act shall take effect following approval by the Mayor (or in the event of veto by the Mayor, action by the Council to override the veto), and shall remain in effect for no longer than 90 days, as provided for emergency acts of the Council of the District of Columbia in section 412(a) of the District of Columbia Home Rule Act, approved December 24, 1973 (87 Stat. 788; D.C. Official Code § 1-204.12(a)).
